Re: FragranceNet.com, Inc. v. FragranceX.com, Inc., CV-06-2225

Dear David:

We write to follow up on our March 6, 2007 request that you stipulate to Plaintiff filing its third amended complaint without seeking leave of the court. As we have already discussed over the phone, the third amended complaint is necessitated by newly discovered evidence that, among other things, Defendant is making unauthorized use of FragranceNet's trademark in the metatags underlying its web site and through its bidding on, purchase and use of the keywords "fragrance net," "fragrancenet" and other variations of Plaintiff's name in Google's Adwords program.

We would appreciate receiving your answer by noon on Friday, March 16, 2007. If we do not hear from you by then, we will be forced to conclude that seeking leave of the court will be necessary.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Myers

Re: FragranceNet.com, Inc. v. FragranceX.com, Inc., CV-06-2225 (JFB)(AKT)

Dear Rebecca:

I looked at plaintiff's proposed Third Amended Complaint.

It does not appear to me that this pleading can be filed in good faith. I am advised that the new allegations concerning the metatags and Google's Adwords program are factually groundless.

Sincerely,

David Rabinowitz

Re: FragranceNet.com, Inc. v. FragranceX.com, Inc., CV-06-2225

Dear Judge Bianco:

We are counsel for defendant FragranceX.com, Inc. This letter confirms a joint request made this morning by telephone to adjourn the pre-motion conference previously scheduled for 4:00 p.m. today.

Plaintiff has requested a pre-motion conference for a motion to file a Third Amended Complaint. That pre-motion conference was scheduled for today. On Monday, April 16, plaintiff sent to my office a new proposed Third Amended Complaint different from the one previously proposed. We suggested to plaintiff's counsel that today's pre-motion conference be adjourned so that we can consider whether we wish to oppose the filing of the new proposed Third Amended Complaint. Upon plaintiff's counsel agreement, we telephoned your Chambers this morning and, with the assistance of your law clerk, rescheduled the pre-motion conference for 1:00 p.m. next Wednesday, April 25.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,

David Rabinowitz
